DIGITAL SCHOLARSHIP

Creates connections between experts and novices, while providing space and opportunity for conversation

(Hensley and Bell, 2017)

A move away from the passive, one-way form of communication from scholar to student or peer or novice.

Face-to-Face with RIA

Similar with the concept of book-a-librarian, Face-to-Face with RIA is also available for consultation or one-on-one [illegible] available in the Libraries from Monday to Friday, 09:00am to 06:00pm.

Make an appointment with RIA.

This service is limited to helping patrons find answers to research questions, bibliographic and technology instruction, and reader's advisory. As such, it will not cover the following: (a) computer configuration, maintenance, and troubleshooting; (b) provision of investment, legal, or medical advice; (c) tutoring or homework help; and, (d) job interview preparation.

To book a session (which lasts for about 30 to 60 minutes), follow these three simple steps. Note that an activated MyLibrary account is required in booking for an appointment.

Booking should be made at least three working days before the intended date of consultation.

Patrons are entitled to avail of a maximum of two appointments per month.

The Libraries reserves the right to cancel an appointment made by a patron who fails to show up within the first 15 minutes of the scheduled consultation session.

Need help? Ask LORA.

Request for Library Orientation / Tour

Are you a faculty of research methodology? Do you teach English 10 or EDRE 101?

The Information Services and Instruction Section (formerly General Reference Section) of the UP Diliman Main Library invites you and your class to our library orientation/tour program.

Library orientation, which is good for one and half hour class, includes (1) a tour of the library; (2) lecture on the library services offered to the UP community; (3) demonstration on how to use the WebOPAC ; and (4) how to access and maximize the use of online subscriptions of the University.

Should you wish to schedule a library orientation/tour, please email our reference librarians at libraryinfo.updiliman@up.edu.ph. You may also check the library orientation calendar (see below) for the currently scheduled sessions.

We are glad to have you in The University Library!

Request for Document Delivery

DOCUMENT DELIVERY is a fee-based service for UP and non-UP library users. The document delivery service processes articles and book chapter requests from the journals, books, e-resources and other materials available only in UP Diliman Libraries. These documents are scanned and can be picked up in person or sent electronically via email.

Requests may be sent to the Information Services and Instruction Section (ISaIS) through email at libraryinfo.updiliman@up.edu.ph with the specific information regarding the material being requested. This includes the title of the article/chapter, the journal/book where it appeared, place and date of publication, page numbers to be requested, and other pertinent details. The Reference Librarian will search iLib Web OPAC, find the article or book chapter and deliver it via email or courier.

Requests from students from other schools, private and government researchers shall be made through their office's or school's Head Librarian.

Fees:

International

1. Image scanning: US $1.00 per page
2. Set-up charge
   - US$ 10.00 for first 50 pages per article
   - US$ 1.00 for every 10 additional pages beyond first 50

ADVANCING DIGITAL SCHOLARSHIP

- What are our planned initiatives in the coming years?
- What are the challenges and opportunities we see as we strive to make these initiatives materialize?

How do we advance digital scholarship in our academic library?

Planned initiatives

- Digital Scholarship Commons (program and learning space) - focusing on learning advising using collab spaces and digital tech
- Makerspaces/Fab Labs/Creative Studios
- MOOCs / IL modules
- Digital archives platform

Challenges

- More visibility of the library in the digital scholarship activities of the university community (establishing role of the library)
- Librarian engagement in digital scholarship partnerships/projects
- Budget and related processes
- Administrative support
- Technical experts (need for)
